How to get to the institute?

By plane

Airport Leipzig-Halle (LEJ):

Take the municipal railway (S-Bahn) line 5, direction Zwickau, which leaves Leipzig-Halle Airport every 30 minutes. Get off the train at the stop „Leipzig MDR“; then follow the street Semmelweisstraße, and turn right at the intersection with the street Straße des 18. Oktober. At the Deutscher Platz the institute building is located at your right-hand side. A taxi ride from the airport to the institute costs about 40 Euro.

By train/municipal railway/tram

When you arrive in Leipzig by train (IC, EC, IR) take the municipal railway (S-Bahn) line 5, direction Zwickau, which leaves Leipzig railway station every 30 minutes. Do not forget to buy a ticket „Einzelfahrkarte Leipzig“ at one of the automats and stamp it before boarding the S-Bahn. Get off the train at the stop „Leipzig MDR“; then follow the street Semmelweisstraße, and turn right at the intersection with the street Straße des 18. Oktober. At the Deutscher Platz the institute building is located at your right-hand side.

Alternatively, you may go to the institute by tram. If you choose this option you need to exit Leipzig railway station. You will then find yourself at Willy-Brandt-Platz. Buy a ticket „Einzelfahrkarte Leipzig“ at one of the ticket counters or automats and stamp it right after boarding the tram. Take tram number 16 to the destination „Lößnig“ (or „Lössnig“) and get off at the 6th stop called „Deutsche Nationalbibliothek“. Turn left, cross the street Semmelweisstraße, and you will find yourself at Deutscher Platz. The Institute, a modern building with a glass facade, is at your right.

By car

Approaching Leipzig from the North via national route A9, change to A14 at Schkeuditzer Kreuz direction Dresden. Follow A14, then take the exit „Leipzig-Mitte“, and follow the road B2. Approaching Leipzig from the South change from A9 or A14 to A38 and take the exit „Leipzig-Süd“, then follow the B2 and take the exit towards „Wittenberg“. Turn right when you reach Semmelweisstraße, the sign there says „Alte Messe, Deutsche Nationalbibliothek“. Cross Philipp-Rosenthal-Strasse and turn left when you reach Strasse des 18. Oktober. Entering Deutscher Platz you see the Institute, a modern building at your right-hand side.
